Field constructed and established in 1914

Telephone: 407-246-2000

Type of Property:

- Archaeological or Historic Site
- Residential Building
- Public Building
- Commercial Building
- Other (Describe)

Original Use:

Baseball stadium for Major League Baseball
Since 1923.

Present Use:

used as baseball field for Lake Highland High School.

Physical Description (Indicate basic design and construction, and general condition at present time.)

The structure of the stadium and field are architecturally sound and stable. Although it has not been used for Major League Baseball since 2000, the City of Orlando has maintained the field and the stadium remains in fair condition.

Why is the property significant?

The field has been in existence since 1914 and from 1923-2000 it was used by Major League Baseball. More famous ball players have grazed the field than any other in Florida. Additionally, it was named after, and affiliated with, Joe Tinker who at his death in 1948, was the only Hall of Famer from Florida.

Enclosures: He is important to the history of baseball
